2020 AWARDS SEASON

AO Closes the 2020 Awards Season Winning Multifamily Community Of The Year

It has been a very successful year for AO's Multifamily Studio winning 19 awards this past season entering multiple awards competitions that highlighted creative development concepts and top design. The year started off with the PCBC Gold Nugget Awards. AO received Gold awards for both Vici and The Skydeck at the George. Vici, developed by H.G. Fenton, received a Gold award for Best Mixed-Use Community and The Skydeck at the George, developed by Lyon Living, won for Best Indoor/Outdoor Lifestyle for a Community. The award wins did not stop there though. AO went on to win 6 merit awards at the Gold Nugget awards for Arte, developed by Fore Properties, VRV developed by Bonanni Development, and First Point developed by AMG & Associates and TPC, all receiving honors. Awards programs to follow included Multi-Housing News (MHN) Excellence Awards where AO received 4 more awards in multiple categories including a Silver award for Best Design & Development, Mid-Rise for Vela on Ox, developed by Fairfield Residential. Following MHN was the Multifamily Pillars of the Industry Awards where AO won 2 awards with Broadstone Arden at Park & Paseo, developed by Alliance Residential, winning top honors for Best Low-Rise Apartment Community. The last awards program entered was the Best in American Living Awards (BALA) in which Vici won Multifamily Community of the Year. AO also took home top honors for Best Mixed-Use Community as well as best Multifamily Development 4-7 Stories, For Rent. Without a doubt AO's most awarded project this year was Vici. The project received 8 awards with two standout wins. Congratulations to all our project partners on this years' amazing success. Looking forward to the 2021 awards season!
